

GOVERNANCE PLAN

The People

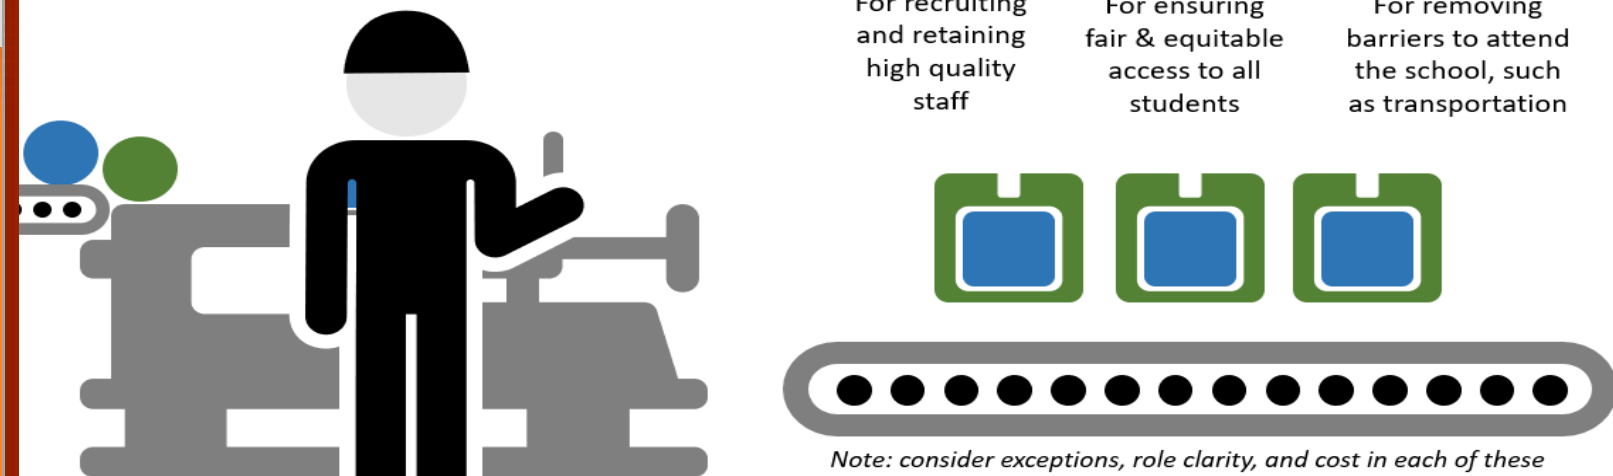

Provide evidence that you have assembled...

This handout summarizes some of the specific look for's that comprise the Institute evaluation of the Governance Plan. This is intended to identify best practices, reference common mistakes that Committees often make, and serve as guidance to support applicants engaging in the Institute-specific review process. Please note, other sponsors may emphasize or highlight different application components, and may weight or conduct their evaluations in a way that is distinct from the Institute.

This document does not reference all indicators evaluated. A comprehensive list of these criteria can be found in the South Carolina New School Application and Rubric found here: <https://ed.sc.gov/districts-schools/school-choice/charter-schools-program/charter-school-application-information/>.

The application should identify specific processes, plans, and procedures for the following:

Applicants should both consider plans and draft policies related to the following

Consider roles and responsibilities between school personnel, administration, possibly management, and the local board. Ensure alignment between your model, mission, and any drafts or templates you use.

The Processes

The Policies