Reading Coach

Clear Dot Charter School is currently seeking a Reading Coach!

The Reading Coach, while working with the administration team, will mentor and support K-11 teachers by providing ongoing literacy-related professional development in the major areas of reading and instructional assessments; modeling effective evidence-based instructional practices; assisting in analyzing student performance data for differentiated instruction and interventions; and supporting the implementation of school-wide reading initiatives.

WHAT WE OFFER

Clear Dot Charter School is committed to building a school culture where there is respect and cooperation among students, adults, and families. Applicants should be open to a dynamic, collaborative teacher-driven school where teachers have the freedom to design curriculum aligned with SC Standards and the Global Competency Framework. We offer competitive pay and benefits including a 401(k) match. Additional earning opportunities such as after school tutoring and summer school are also available to our staff.

WHO WE HIRE

Clear Dot Charter School endeavors to attract passionate, highly qualified educators. Instructional personnel are required to hold a valid South Carolina teacher's certificate or certificate appropriate to the job assignment.

JOIN OUR TEAM

At Clear Dot Charter School, we strive to cultivate a teaching faculty representative of the diverse community we serve. Each employee of Clear Dot plays an integral role in our school family. We believe in shared ownership of our school and its success, as well as the academic achievement of every student. Each staff member strives to create an equitable, vibrant, and rigorous learning community. We have teachers who have come to us through industry, as well as followed traditional paths into teaching.
